The Protection of Correction

INTRODUCTION: I've been enjoying two books by Anna Roundtree called THE HEAVENS OPENED and THE PRIESTLY BRIDE. These books detail her experiences in being caught up to heaven where the mystery of our betrothal to God was revealed to her. Although favored to experience such great revelation, Anna received great corrections in God's presence. In other words, she didn't earn or deserve such great revelations through her own spirituality. Rather, the revelations brought corrections that made intimacy with God a regular thing instead of a one-time experience. She loved God, sought God, ministered for God and was fully devoted to God. Nevertheless, in God's presence she received MUCH correction and these corrections can apply to you and me.

You and I may not be favored by God to SEE the process of His perfection of the saints. But we are undoubtedly experiencing the same things she was blessed to SEE. In fact, her revelations were given to her for us to benefit from. When we see her being corrected we can ask ourselves if we also need similar correction. As we see her being brought into such great intimacy with God we can also long for the process of God's corrections to be fulfilled in us that we, too, may be brought into a constant abiding in God.

1. PRAYER HAS BEEN ANSWERED FOR AMERICA AND EVEN MORE PRAYER IS NEEDED NOW.

I have been praying for God's protection on Donald J Trump since August of 2015. It is my belief that every effort was made by the media (TV and Newspapers) to create a caricature of Donald Trump and then get people to deplore and hate that caricature. Meanwhile, my perception was that my prayers for border security were being answered. Terrorists have been crossing through our very porous southern border along with many diseased people, some of which have anti-biotic resistant tuberculosis. Our very lives depend upon having a secure southern border. I saw Donald Trump's rising as a sign of prayer being answered.

I also read his book-CRIPPLED AMERICA and agreed that the agenda laid out in that book was exactly what our country needs. I've been praying earnestly that the election would not be stolen, that there would indeed be an election and a transfer of power. On election night I was elated with the results and consider that night one of the most memorable and best nights of my life. I believe this great victory was done with God's help against mighty odds. It was an answer to the prayers of God's people.

For the last year I've been preaching a message called BE A DOOR OPENER FOR GOD. In that message I share that God's will for a nation is good government and that a leader must 1. Be Just and 2. Fear the Lord. Derek Prince recommended this prayer: "Give us leaders such that we will get the victory and You will get the glory."

Now we must raise our level of prayer. During the next four years there could be as many as four Supreme Court appointments. The President must choose and the Senate confirm the appointment of many Federal judges. The vast Federal Bureaucracy must be staffed by competent people who are lawful and not corrupt. Meanwhile, problems and enemies abound. It would be disastrous to leave the Trump administration alone in the fight without constant prayer cover. This is no time to relax. The violence of the political left guided by agitators paid for by foreign billionaires shows us how fragile our freedom and safety really is.

We must earnestly pray that this new administration does everything humanly possible to HARDEN OUR ELECTRICAL GRID against EMP attacks and natural solar flares that could knock out electrical power to the entire nation for six months to a year. It is estimated that 90% of Americans would die from starvation, disease and violence if just one nuclear bomb was detonated in the upper atmosphere over our nation creating an Electro-Magnetic Pulse. Newt Gingrich has been advocating for this for several years. The cost has been estimated at only two billion dollars—very doable for our country, and so vital.

My wife, Bonnie, felt sure that Donald Trump was going to win the election because she felt God had communicated that to her. She also perceived that there was going to be some new war.

Here's something else: There is a prophetic man named Sadhu Sundar Selvaraj. On YouTube you can see him giving a prophetic word on August 15, 2016 boldly saying Donald Trump would be the new President. Sadhu said that he was caught up to heaven to the Council of Prophets and stood beside Father Abraham. Donald Trump came and stood in that room. Sadhu was told, "Trump will become President. He will be used to clean and purify the nation. As hard as he is he has been prepared for this. As King Cyrus (of Persia) was used to discipline Israel and then to restore Israel likewise Trump will be used in the U.S. He will be used to cut violence. He will be God's mouth and hand for this nation."

Sadhu Sundar Selvaraj has also seen a vision of California being ripped like a sheet of paper, torn in two pieces by a great earthquake. I thought to myself, "This is a very bold prophecy. If Donald Trump is not elected it will prove Sadhu Sundar is a false prophet because there is no wiggle room in this prophecy. So if Trump's not elected, I can also discredit the prophecy of a great California earthquake that would rip the state in two." Sadhu also has seen an angel of the Lord thrust his sword into the New Madrid fault and cut the nation in two pieces—right up that fault line. Now his somber warnings of great earthquakes seem more plausible since his bold prophetic word regarding Donald Trump has come to pass.

Did you know that Donald Trump wants to rescind the unconstitutional law instituted by President Lyndon Johnson that churches cannot comment on political things and keep their tax-exempt status? Trump wants to throw that law out and give voice back to the church!

Meanwhile rioters are disrupting many major cities, and the greatest "protests" are planned for Inauguration Day, January 20, 2017. Russia has developed a bomb so big that just one of those bombs could destroy Texas or France. China and Russia are both developing super-sonic nuclear warheads and delivery systems that are impossible to defend against. North Korea's leadership is insane and they continue to develop both nuclear weapons and rockets. Iran develops their rockets openly and their nuclear bombs secretly. Did you know that just one dirty bomb, a very low-tech device, exploded in Houston, TX would effectively destroy our entire economy? So much of our oil and gas is processed and passes through Houston that if the city was rendered uninhabitable by a dirty bomb the entire national economy would crash. Yet there is nothing to fear except PRAYERLESSNESS and PRIDE that refuses to depend upon God and seek His corrections.

MY POINT IN ALL THIS: Prayer has been answered. Great. Rejoice. But even more prayer is needed so do not slack up. Rather, increase your prayers for God to raise up leaders who are just and who fear Him—leaders through which He can give us the victory but through which He will receive the glory.

2 Chronicles 7:14 KJV If my people, which are called by my name, shall humble themselves and pray and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and will heal their land.

2. LONGING FOR AND RECEIVING GOD'S CORRECTION GIVES A BELIEVER THE MOST SECURITY IN UNCERTAIN TIMES.

While I was praying for Donald Trump to be elected I was steeling myself for the possibility that the other side would win, borders would be flung wide open, new tax policies would drive the economy off the cliff, and hundreds of thousands of Muslim immigrants would be welcomed into this country without the "extreme vetting" necessary to insure they would not join a Jihad movement.

A familiar scripture comforted me. I found great hope in this verse when I was eighteen years old. At that time I was terribly depressed and oppressed. I went to Bible College just to seek God and have hope. On my way there I was reading Proverbs 1 as my Dad drove the car down the Columbia River Gorge that forms the border of Washington State and Oregon. Proverbs 1:23 KJV says, “Turn at my reproof: behold, I will pour out my spirit unto you, I will make my words known to you.” I said to myself, “That would fix everything that is wrong with me.” Right there, in my heart, I made a covenant with God. I said in my heart, “I VOW to turn at your rebuke. If you’ll take the time to rebuke me I vow to always turn at your rebuke. I make a covenant with you here on the Columbia River. As often as you look down from heaven and see this great river remember that if You will rebuke me I will turn at your rebuke.”

That became the root of my teaching ministry and anointing because if you are teachable you’ll likely be anointed to teach others. Let’s look at the context of this wonderful promise.

Turn at my reproof: behold, I will pour out my spirit unto you, I will make known my words unto you. Because I have called and ye refused; I have stretched out my hand, and no man regarded; But ye have set at nought all my counsel and would none of my reproof: I also will laugh at your calamity; I will mock when your fear cometh; When your fear cometh as desolation, and your destruction cometh as a whirlwind; when distress and anguish cometh upon you. Then shall they call unto me, but I will not answer; they shall seek me early, but they shall not find me; For that they hated knowledge, and did not choose the fear of the Lord: They would none of my counsel: they despised all my reproof. Therefore shall they eat the fruit of their own way, and be filled with their own devices. For the turning away of the simple shall slay them, and the prosperity of fools shall destroy them. But whoso hearkeneth unto me shall dwell safely, and shall be quiet from fear of evil, (Proverbs 1:23-33 KJV).

In a context of calamity, fear, desolation, destruction, distress and anguish the person who cherishes God’s reproof and earnestly seeks it dwells in a security that comes from constantly answered prayer and the knowledge that prayer will be answered no matter what happens to the wicked.

Jesus said, “Do you think I cannot call on my Father, and he will at once put at my disposal more than twelve legions of angels?” (Matthew 26:53 NIV). Those who love God’s corrections can likewise call upon God in any crisis and get dynamic answers to prayer and overwhelming angelic support.

3. IF PEOPLE REJECT GOD’S CORRECTION THEY TURN HORRIBLY EVIL. GOD’S CORRECTIONS ARE TRANSFORMATIONAL.

**** Anna Rountree experienced tremendous intimacy with God AFTER receiving many corrections. I’ll share some of those corrections in this message. But first, I will share something I saw in God’s word. This truth is that if God’s corrections are NOT received, the person who rebels becomes murderous!

**** King Saul rejected the Word of the Lord twice. The prophet Samuel told him to wait seven days at Gilgal until he came and told Saul what to do. Saul waited almost the full time, but then offered a burnt offering himself instead of waiting. So he was never given that vital Word of the Lord Samuel had promised. The second time he rebelled was when Samuel told him by the Word of the Lord to destroy the Amalekites, including their livestock. Saul kept the king of the Amalekites alive as a trophy of war and kept the best of the animals. He said they were going to be sacrificed to the Lord.

After this God told Samuel to go to Bethlehem and anoint one of Jesse’s sons to be king. Samuel said, “How can I go? If Saul hears about it, he will kill me.” The Lord said, “Take a heifer with you and say, ‘I have come to sacrifice to the LORD.’”

**** Saul had been anointed King by Samuel. He had always treated Samuel with honor and shown outward respect even when disobeying Samuel’s words. But now Samuel KNEW that Saul had become a MURDERER! He knew King Saul was now a killer because Saul had completely rejected God’s correction and rebukes. While Samuel escaped from being murdered by King Saul, the priests of the Lord did not escape. Because one priest had given David provisions and the sword of Goliath the entire village of the priests were murdered—men, women and children. Eighty-five innocent priests were murdered plus their wives and children—mass murder! Samuel was right! King Saul had become a murderer in spirit, long before he actually committed these murders. (See 1 Samuel 22:17-18).

Then I began to see this in other Scriptures. When the people of Nazareth were offended at the reproof or correction of Jesus as to their unbelief, they sought to throw him off a cliff! (Luke 4:29)

King Jehoiakim, son of Josiah rejected the Word of the Lord through the prophet Uriah son of Shemaiah. “When King Jehoiakim and all his officers and officials heard his words, the king was determined to put him to death. But Uriah heard of it and fled in fear to Egypt. King Jehoiakim, however, sent Elnathan son of Akbor to Egypt, along with some other men. They brought Uriah out of Egypt and took him to King Jehoiakim, who had him struck down with a sword and his body thrown into the burial place of the common people” (Jeremiah 26:21-23).

Whether kings or common people, when God’s rebukes are firmly rejected people turn into murderers! When Stephen rebuked his accusers he said, “You stiff-necked people! Your hearts and ears are still uncircumcised. You are just like your ancestors: You always resist the Holy Spirit! (Acts 7:41). You know what happened. “They covered their ears and, yelling at the top of their voices, they all rushed at him, dragged him out of the city and began to stone him” (Acts 7:57-58).

**** Let’s take an example of people who TURNED at God’s correction. Peter preached on the Day of Pentecost to the great crowd that gathered in amazement as they heard 120 people speaking in tongues. He rebuked them sharply. “Therefore let all Israel be assured of this: God has made this Jesus, whom you crucified, both Lord and Messiah.” When the people heard this, they were cut to the heart and said to Peter and the other apostles, “Brothers, what shall we do?” Peter replied, “Repent and be baptized, every one of you, in the name of Jesus Christ for the forgiveness of your sins. And you will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit. The promise is for you and your children and for all who are far off—for all whom the Lord our God will call.” With many other words he warned them; and he pleaded with them, “Save yourselves from this corrupt generation.” Those who accepted his message were baptized, and about three thousand were added to their number that day (Acts 2:36-40).

A rebuke from God, if received, turns people into saints—a holy ones. A rebuke from God, if rejected, hardens wicked hearts to the point that they become murderers.

4. JUDGMENT COMES UPON THOSE WHO HATE GOD’S CORRECTIONS.

Lot stood on his porch and rebuked the men of Sodom who wanted to rape the two angels that were in Lot’s house. Lot said, “No, my friends. Don’t do this wicked thing.” But having rejected this rebuke from God those men said, “Get out of our way. We’ll treat you worse than them” (Genesis 19:8-9). The angels then struck the men with blindness and they were not healed. Rather, they were destroyed in the fire that fell from heaven the next morning.

In regard to a woman who called herself a prophetess Jesus said, “I have given her time to repent of her immorality, but she is unwilling. So I will cast her on a bed of suffering, and I will make those who commit adultery with her suffer intensely, unless they repent of her ways” (Rev. 2:21-22).

Here’s my point: America is seeing two things happen at once—a renewal of spiritual and American values and a hardening by others to the point of violence. So will God’s blessings on one group somehow prevent those who reject God’s corrections from being judged? No. Revival and judgment will occur simultaneously. God’s word and correction comes, and some turn to be blessed. Others reject it and are hardened. They become so wicked that God’s judgments break out in this life, not just the next. Paul wrote, “Be on your guard; stand firm in the faith; be courageous; be strong,” (1 Cor. 16:13).

**** Remember the Parable of the Weeds? When the servants asked if they should uproot the weeds they were told that in doing so they might uproot the wheat as well. “Let both grow together until the harvest. At that time I will tell the harvesters: First collect the weeds and tie them in bundles to be burned; then gather the wheat and bring it into my barn” (Matthew 13:30).

So wickedness will grow to full maturity around godly people. But they seem to be gathered in certain concentrations of wickedness (usually sinful cities) awaiting fiery judgment. So do not let down your guard. Be much in prayer, turn at God's corrections and long for them. You'll see both revival and answered prayer and you'll also see judgment upon cities and areas that have firmly rejected God's corrections. Jesus said, "Be always on the watch, and pray that you may be able to escape all that is about to happen, and that you may be able to stand before the Son of Man" (Luke 21:36).

5. A DEEPER LEVEL OF CORRECTION IS REQUIRED FOR THOSE WHO WANT TO GO DEEPER IN GOD.

Now we are going to get to the GOOD STUFF! I'm going to share some of the corrections Anna Rountree received in heavenly visions. She was what we'd call "pretty spiritual" to begin with, but in God's presence she was corrected strongly in a number of areas. When I read her accounts it makes me long for the precise corrections that bring absolute intimacy with God. There is no other way. Jesus said, "If you remain in me and my words remain in you, ask whatever you wish, and it will be done for you" (John 15:7). Some of those words are the rebukes of wisdom.

Proverbs 15:31 Whoever heeds life-giving correction will be at home among the wise. King Solomon was used by the Spirit of God to write this, but he didn't obey it. He didn't turn at God's warnings to avoid idolatry. He spurned God's written warnings not to marry foreign women. And in the end he became a murderer. He sought to kill Jeroboam whom the prophet Ahijah had anointed to be king over ten tribes of Israel. (See 1 Kings 11:40). The apostle John wrote, "Anyone who hates a brother or sister is a murderer and you know that no murderer has eternal life residing in him" (1 John 3:15).

Solomon lost his place among the wise when he rejected God's life-giving correction. But you and I, we must not make this same deadly error. We must EMBRACE God's corrections and long for them.

**** THE SAND PILE. In Anna Rountree's first book, THE HEAVENS OPENED, she finds herself in Paradise and hears a child's voice. The child appears to be five or six years old, was shining, and had eyes that looked old beyond the years displayed in her small stature. She looked like a little girl. This little "girl" said, "I want you to come play with me...in my sand pile." The angelic little girl was named Crystal Clear. The angel guiding Anna on her heavenly tour gave permission for her to go with Crystal Clear. They were suddenly on a vast shore line, a beach with no sea. In the sand were all manner of red and blue children's buckets and shovels.

"Haven't you always wanted to build a sand castle?" she asked.

I chuckled, "Well, not really, Crystal Clear."

"Yes, you have," she continued. "Think about it. You've wanted to build on earth, and all of that is sand. When the tide comes in, it goes away. Even the tools for building remain longer than a sandcastle, for the tools are from God. But if you use them to build on sand instead of in eternity, what do you have? A waste of time," she shrugged. "You have wanted a sandcastle. It's silly really, isn't it?"

"I suppose so," I said quietly. I did not want to admit it, but she was right. I had wanted a home and financial security and to accomplish something—for God, of course—but I had tunnel vision for the life on earth. I had Christianized the gospel of the world and bought into my own packaging. It was a bitter thing to hear that the focus of my life had been fleshly and worthless to God, and that I had not gotten away with it."

"Do you want to play?" she continued cheerily.

I felt a little sick. I thought I would change the subject. "Why such a large sand area?" I asked.

"Many want to build on sand, so we let them. It gets it out of their systems, you know. Maybe if you build on the sand right now, you would feel, 'I've done that.'"

It seems a silly thing to do," I said stonily.

"Well, yes, it does. However, building on the earth is really the same: silly toys that are long forgotten here, toys that do not even gather dust in the attic but disintegrate and are totally forgotten here—a waste of God's precious time," she said much too breezily.

I had the taste of a copper penny in my mouth. Is it all right if we do not play today?" I asked.

Oh, all right, she said. "Do you want to join the tour?" I don't know," I said dazed. I felt as though I had been hit by a truck. "I like your name, Crystal Clear," I said acidly. "It's apt."

"Maybe a little rest," she said, as if she had not heard my remark. "Now, remember to come back to see us. We love you here; do keep in touch." She held up her tiny hands, and I held up mine to reciprocate. Light came from hers into mine and knocked me softly backwards.

I lay on the air, as someone might lie on a gurney while being wheeled through hospital halls. My arms were across my chest, as I floated down the path like a patient returning from surgery. (pages 11-13 of THE HEAVENS OPENED) Can we apply her corrections to ourselves? I sure hope so!

**** Later Anna was involved in a school for healing angels. She had once been heavily anointed for healing which lasted several months and then disappeared. She writes, The INSTRUCTOR did not respond to my inner dialogue, but continued, "Clara, I would suggest that she begin classes soon. She's almost a classic example of 'gelatin belief'—touch it and it shakes.' I'm going to teach these classes myself," he continued. "She can study this series at home as a correspondence course, but since she's here right now, she could tour the warehouse." (Page 21 of THE HEAVENS OPENED).

Anna was given a tour of a warehouse in heaven that contains body parts for healing miracles. But notice the correction she's receiving. She was told honestly that her belief in healing was "gelatin belief—touch it and it shakes. She was told she needed to study divine healing courses at home. The angels told her that a second great healing revival was about ready to break out, that two angels would be assigned to each person with the gifts of healings instead of one angel as in the previous healing revival. She was told that many more people would have this gifting this time around to help prevent them from pride and taking God's glory. Since reading this I've ordered several books on divine healing, so I can STUDY AT HOME. Why wait until God corrects you personally? Why not turn at someone else's correction?

**** Later Jesus and Anna are in a beautiful garden, a walled garden for lovers. Jesus said to her, "I have been waiting for you, Anna. The loneliness you experienced is nothing compared to the heartache I experienced as I waited for you, seeing you run after all manner of idols to seek satisfaction." He looked out into the garden. "How I called to you." There was pain in his voice. "Year after year you dallied, and I grieved, waiting for you to realize that no one can, nor ever will, bring you life itself but Me alone."

His words struck me to the heart. "My Lord and my God," I said quietly, 'no one has ever loved me as You have...' I was choked with emotion. Slowly I continued, "Nor ever desired my company as..." but I could not finish.

"None of flesh and blood can, Anna, for you belong to Me." He looked me in the eye, and His eyes pierced through me. "I created you for Myself, and only I can satisfy you truly and fully." (Page 18-19 THE HEAVENS OPENED)

**** NOTICE, this lady was a full time minister, a prayer warrior, taught prayer seminars, and sought God much. Yet in the very presence of God, Jesus gives her correction. She had been looking for fulfillment and satisfaction and life from other sources other than Him—while He waited and waited. I wonder if He is waiting and waiting on me—and on you—to realize that we were created for Him and that only He can fully and truly satisfy the longings of our hearts. Again, you won't need to hear His voice tell you what He told Anna in person. If you recognize you need the same correction, just turn at the correction she received and you'll profit spiritually from that.

**** LESSONS ON OBEDIENCE

Jesus told her, "I delight to show you your heavenly home, but for your safety, you must be trained in obedience. There are grave dangers. All doors to the enemy must be shut." Then an angel appeared and said, "All of this is for the children of God, but you, Anna, have chosen to eat from the hand of God. You must love your Father enough to choose obedience rather than gratifications on earth. Choose Him minute by minute. You are careless with His gifts, and you are careless with His love for you."

She writes, "His overfamiliarity stunned me, as well as his knowledge of a decision I had only recently made; but yes, I was careless. As the Lord had drawn me into a deeper walk with Him, those things permissible a year or even a month ago were now no longer allowable. Somehow I could no longer get by with them, but I still lapsed into many of those faults.

“I thought to myself, Let the wicked forsake his way and the unrighteous man his thoughts (Isa. 55:7 KJV) . I had moved from the “way” category to the “thoughts.” My mind did not focus on unforgiveness or covetousness or such obvious sins. My sins now were in engaging my mind in some area where I was not called, or in letting my mind dwell on the past, or in making a judgment that was out of my boundary of responsibility.

**** Again, deeper fellowship is brought about by deeper levels of correction. 2 Cor. 10:5 We take captive every thought to make it obedient to Christ.

**** Next she meets an angel called Shama. His robe was stained at the bottom and on the sleeves with something that looked like grape juice. She asked him why? He said, “I am called to assist in child training—the kind that squeezes the child—like being in a wine press. These,” he looked down at the stains, are visible signs of the child’s development. The more stains, the greater the work has progressed within the child. Obedience is not learned easily, Anna. Some on earth never learn it.”

“Are you an angel assigned to help train me? I asked.

“I am assigned to you.”

“Helping to train people in obedience cannot be a pleasant job.”

The angel replied, “It is of great significance to the Father and absolutely necessary. By this time in your life, my robe should be entirely stained and my face and hands dripping, but there are only stains on the hem and sleeves. So may I suggest that you are hindering your growth through known disobedience. Immediate gratification can never replace serving the Lord with a whole heart. Such obedience releases joys untold.” At this point Anna repents and the angel assured her of God’s forgiveness.

She then noticed how powerful he looked and said, “If you were a human, I would say you ‘worked out.’”

“We do ‘work out,’” he laughed heartily, “but our workout comes from wrestling with humans. I look as I do because you have given me so much resistance through your flesh. So,” he laughed, “you might say I do ‘work out.’ I would suggest that you turn this very day so that my workout is less strenuous. Delight yourself in God, Anna, and reduce my exercise program,” he smiled.

Then he sobered rapidly. “Nothing, no one can compare to Him,” he said. “Speaking for those of us who are assigned to you,” he continued haltingly, almost as if he was going to reveal something deeply personal, “we would like to get a little closer to God.” He almost stammered, “If it were only us, we would; but much depends upon you concerning that.” He seemed so embarrassed by what he has said that he vanished. (from pages 54-56 THE HEAVENS OPENED)

**** I believe that you and I each have an angel, assigned to SQUEEZE us by putting us into situations that require a surrender of all self and all selfishness. I wonder if my angel is wearing a robe that is stained a lot or just a little. Do we desire our angel to be well stained because of squeezing the carnality right out of us? Actually, we might be resisting, complaining, and grumbling about the squeezing process and fighting to avoid the death of self. Something to ponder, to be sure.

**** Jesus took her to a place in the spirit where caves lined the levees and she heard cries and moans coming from them. They looked like dungeons. This vision represented the spiritual captivity of people alive on earth. Jesus explained that His own people could participate in the captivity of others by enjoying their downfall, laughing at their mistakes, and holding them in chains of judgment and condemnation instead of helping to break those chains through intercession. Jesus showed her that demons laugh at each other’s misery and deny each other relief—turning, forever turning upon one another, therefore always alone.

What was very revealing to me was the idea that if I judge people, and think critical thoughts about them I might actually be helping to keep them bound in spiritual caves, bound by demon spirits.

**** AN EXAMPLE: Huma Abadine. She was been Hillary Clinton’s right hand lady for many years. Her X-husband is a sexual pervert. She could face criminal prosecution for mishandling classified information from the State Department. She is a Muslim, from a family closely connected with The Muslim Brotherhood, a real terrorist group. Even many of her political friends are down on her now because 650,000 emails concerning Hillary, the State Department and the Clinton Foundation were found on her personal computer. This discovery led to the FBI announcing it had reopened the investigation into Clinton's E-mails less than two weeks before the Presidential Election. James Comey, the head of the FBI took eight days before saying that these emails would not change their earlier conclusions and recommendations. However, that helped cast an even greater cloud over Hillary and she blames Comey for costing her the election. But many blame Huma Abadine for keeping all those emails in a private computer accessible to her husband.

Now here's my point. Who among us prays for the salvation of Huma Abadine? Who feels compassion? In the spirit realm, it is very possible that she would look like one of those captives Anna Roundtree saw. Those people were not in hell. The vision showed what their current state looked like in the spirit realm.

**** This is an amazing correction. How very easy and common place to add a spiritual chain of condemnation and disdain to some person already taken captive by forces of darkness. Who really loves Huma Abadine but Jesus Christ? What if we prayed for people instead of disdaining them?

I thought I could list all of the examples of correction Anna received in numerous spiritual visions of heaven, but I cannot. I haven't even gotten through her first book, let alone the second.

6. IF YOU REALLY LOVE PEOPLE, YOU WILL GIVE THEM CORRECTION.

Jesus said, "Those whom I love I rebuke and discipline. So be earnest and repent," (Rev. 3:19). Proverbs 27:9 Perfume and incense bring joy to the heart, and the pleasantness of a friend springs from their heartfelt advice. Heartfelt advice often involves telling a person how and why they need to change course. If you do not want heartfelt advice from a person, you really do not want them as a friend. If you want to be a friend and really love someone, do not withhold corrective advice. Paul wrote to Titus, "Encourage and rebuke with all authority," (Titus 2:15). He also said in regard to Cretans who were known to be liars, evil brutes, and lazy gluttons-- "Therefore, rebuke them sharply, so that they will be sound in the faith (Titus 1:12-14). You see, if these people are going to be transformed they'll need correction and then, if they receive it, they'll be transformed and be sound in the faith.

God said to Jeremiah regarding false prophets, "They dress the wound of my people as though it were not serious. 'Peace, peace,' they say, when there is no peace (Jeremiah 6:14). God also said, "But if they had stood in my council, they would have proclaimed my words to my people and would have turned them from their evil ways and from their evil deeds," (Jeremiah 23:22).

The Bible says, "Reprove not a scorner, lest he hate thee; rebuke a wise man, and he will love thee," (Proverbs 9:8 KJV).

Jesus said, "Do not give dogs what is sacred; do not throw your pearls to pigs. If you do, they may trample them under their feet, and turn and tear you to pieces" (Matthew 7:6). Pearls are corrections of wisdom. Notice how those people who trample such words under their feet become murderous and would tear you to pieces. Again, you see the transformative power of God's correction. Those who receive it come into God's very heart. Those who disdain it become like the devil himself.

CONCLUSION: Great spiritual security comes to those who love God's correction. Great intimacy with God comes to them. They can call on God in any crisis and get angelic help—lots of it. They are transformed into God's image because His corrections are transformative. Let us pray for these higher levels of correction so that we can go higher in God. Deeper correction means we'll go deeper in the River of God. Calamities and judgments will come to those who hate God's correction but even in the context of judgment there is safety and security for those who love God's correction. May you be one of those. I love you, God bless you.
